Caratacus was a British chieftain who led the resistance against the Roman invasion of Britain in the 1st century AD. He is one of the most well-known figures in British history, and his story has been told and retold for centuries.

Caratacus was born around 15 AD, the son of Cunobelinus, the king of the Catuvellauni tribe. The Catuvellauni were one of the most powerful tribes in Britain, and Caratacus was raised to be a warrior and a leader.
