Instructions

1. Cut the fabric.

To make a Spinning Spokes quilt block, you will need to cut the following pieces of fabric:

- Four 2.5-inch squares
- Four 1.5-inch squares
- Four 0.5-inch squares

To cut the fabric squares, use a rotary cutter and cutting mat. First, measure and mark the desired dimensions on the fabric. Then, place the rotary cutter on the mark and roll it along the ruler to cut the fabric.

• Sew the blocks.

To sew the blocks, you will need to use a sewing machine. First, lay out the fabric squares in the following order:

0.5-inch square | 1.5-inch square | 2.5-inch square 1.5-inch square | 2.

Next, sew the squares together in rows, using a 1/4-inch seam allowance. Press the seams open after each row is sewn.

Once the rows are sewn, sew them together to form the quilt block. Press the seams open after the block is sewn.

- Trim the block.

To trim the block, use a quilt ruler and rotary cutter to trim the edges of the block so that it measures 6.5 inches square.

- Repeat.

Repeat steps 1-3 to make as many quilt blocks as you need for your quilt.

- Assemble the quilt.

To assemble the quilt, lay out the quilt blocks in the desired order. Sew the blocks together in rows, using a 1/4-inch seam allowance. Press the seams open after each row is sewn.

Once the rows are sewn, sew them together to form the quilt top. Press the seams open after the quilt top is sewn.

- Quilt the quilt.

To quilt the quilt, sandwich the quilt top between two layers of batting. Quilt the layers together using your preferred method. Once the quilt is quilted, bind the edges to finish it off.
